Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. is a United States limited company. United Kingdom Registration No. FC18173, Branch No. BR2639.

NOTICE TO ALL SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS:

We use soft, PVC (Polyvinyl chloride), flips to ship auction lots in. We do not recommend these flips for long-term storage as PVC does damage coins over prolonged exposure.

We recommend placing your coins in a safe type of flip (Mylar) for long-term storage purposes.

AUCTION TERMS

This is a public and mail bid auction conducted by Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). Bidding in the auction constitutes acceptance of the following terms:

1. The property listed in this catalogue is offered for sale by CNG for itself and as agent for various owners and other consignors. We reserve the right to reject any bid, to determine the opening price, to set bidding increments, to vary the order of the auction, to reopen bidding in the case of a dispute, to withdraw any lot, to bid on behalf of CNG, to bid on behalf of the consignor, and to permit the consignor to bid on his own lots.

2. All lots are subject to a 10% Buyer's fee which will be added to the hammer price.

3. All coins are guaranteed genuine. Attribution, date, condition and other descriptions are the opinion of the cataloguer, and no warranty is expressed or implied. Please note that an auction sale is not an approval sale. Lots examined prior to the sale and lots purchased by floor bidders (including bidders executing commission bids on behalf of other parties) may not be returned for any reason except lack of authenticity. All claims of misdescription and all claims of return, except claims regarding authenticity, must be made within 5 days of receipt of material. Any claim of lack of authenticity must be made in writing by the original purchaser immediately after discovery that an item is not authentic, and upon making such a claim the original purchaser must immediately return the lot to CNG in the same condition as at the time of the auction. Estimates are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value.

4. Terms are for cash, with invoices being due and payable immediately upon receipt. Interest and collection charges of 2.0% per month, from the date of the auction, shall be payable on invoices not settled within 30 days of the sale date. Payment by check must be made in either US dollars ($) drawn on a US bank or British sterling (£) drawn on a British bank. All successful bidders outside North America and the United Kingdom will be invoiced an additional $15 fee for bank charges, but buyers may deduct this fee if payment is made as required above. Payment may be made by Visa, Mastercard or American Express; however, a 3.5% surcharge is made for payment by credit card.

5. Bidders not known to us must provide us with satisfactory credit references or pay a deposit as determined at CNG's discretion before bidding. Minors are not permitted to bid without written consent of a parent guaranteeing payment. CNG may require payment in full from any bidder prior to delivery of lots. Title does not pass until lots are paid in full. Upon receipt of lots, the buyer assumes full responsibility for loss or damage.

6. Estimates are in U.S. dollars ($US) and bids must be in even dollar ($) amounts. CNG will execute mail bids on behalf of mail bidders. Subject to reserves and opening prices, mail bids will be executed at one bidding increment (approximately 10%) over the next highest bid. Please note that bids below estimate are rarely reduced, but bids above estimate stand a good chance of being reduced. In the case of identical bids, the earliest bid wins. A mail bid has priority over an identical floor bid. Bid by lot number. No lots will be broken. Bidders are responsible for errors in bidding. Check your bid sheet carefully.

7. A word on Reserves. CNG reserves the right to place a reserve on any lot. However, no reserve will be higher than the estimate, and ordinarily lots are reserved at 60% of estimate.

8. Bidders personally guarantee payment for their successful bids, including bidders executing commission bids from other parties and bidders representing corporations or other entities. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and remain responsible to CNG for full settlement under these Auction Terms.

9. In the event a successful bidder fails to make any payment when due, CNG reserves the right to resell the material, and the bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid. CNG also reserves all rights that it would be entitled to under the Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code, including the right to offset any sums due from a successful bidder against any future consignment or purchase or monies or goods in possession of CNG.

10. Sales tax, postage, handling and insurance are the responsibility of the buyer and are added to all invoices where appropriate. Postage, handling and insurance for book lots will be invoiced separately from coin lots. On any tax not paid by the purchaser which should have been paid, even if not invoiced by CNG, the purchaser agrees to pay the same on demand together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed. It is the responsibility of the buyer to comply with foreign customs and other regulations.

11. Prices Realised are published after the sale and are mailed with CNG's next publication.

12. Bidders consent to waive any claim for incidental, consequential or exemplary damages arising from this auction. The sole remedy that any participant in the auction shall have for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund, without interest, of all or part of the purchase price paid by the participant.

13. All rights granted by CNG or otherwise available to bidders and purchasers, under these Auction Terms or otherwise, are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred by these Auction Terms. Bidders acting as agents must disclose the agency in writing to CNG prior to the auction; otherwise rights are limited to the agent and are not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

14. Any dispute regarding this auction shall be governed by the laws of Pennsylvania and shall be adjudicated only by the Lancaster County Court of Common Pleas or the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and all bidders submit themselves to the personal jurisdiction of these courts for this purpose based on service by registered or certified mail. In any dispute regarding this auction, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and attorney fees.

15. In the event of a dispute, the English version of these Auction Terms shall be definitive.

Bid Sheets must be received by Wednesday, May 28, 1997.

GOOD LUCK!

AUKTIONSBEDINGUNGEN

Diese Versteigerung wird von Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG) öffentlich abgehalten. Sie können daran persönlich teilnehmen oder Ihre Gebote schriftlich einreichen. Durch die Abgabe eines Gebotes erkennen Sie die nachstehenden Versteigerungsbedingungen an:

2. Auf alle Lose wird ein Aufgeld von 10 % auf den Zuschlagspreis erhoben.
3. Die Echtheit aller Münzen wird garantiert. Alle Beschreibungen geben die persönliche Beurteilung des Verfassers wieder, es wird insoweit keine Gewähr geleistet. Bitte beachten Sie, daß eine Auktion Käufe zur Ansicht ausschließt. Lose, die vor dem Verkauf besichtigt wurden, und Lose, die von bei der Versteigerung anwesenden BieterInnen (einschließlich BieterInnen, die Gebote im Namen anderer Parteien auf Provisionsbasis abgeben) gekauft wurden, können aus keinem Grund zurückgegeben werden, ausgenommen bei mangelnder Echtheit. Alle Reklamationen, ausgenommen Ansprüche in Bezug auf mangelnde Echtheit, müssen innerhalb von fünf Tagen nach dem Erhalt der Ware vorgebracht werden. Ansprüche auf Grund mangelnder Echtheit müssen von dem ursprünglichen Käufer in schriftlicher Form sofort nach Kenntnis, gestellt werden; und bei der Geltendmachung eines solchen Anspruchs muß der ursprüngliche Käufer die Ware sofort in dem gleichen Zustand an CNG zurückgeben, in dem sich die Ware zum Zeitpunkt der Auktion befand. Schätzwerte sind nur als Richtlinien gedacht und stellen keine verbindliche Erklärung über den Wert dar.
4. Die Bezahlung wird sofort nach Erhalt der Rechnung fällig. Auf Rechnungen, die nicht innerhalb von 30 Tagen nach dem Verkaufstag beglichen werden, werden vom Datum der Auktion an Zinsen und Inkassogebühren in Höhe von 2% pro Monat berechnet. Die Zahlung muß mit Scheck erfolgen, entweder mit einem auf US-Dollar (US-$) ausgestellten Scheck, der auf eine US-Bank gezogen ist, oder mit einem auf Pfund Sterling (£) ausgestellten Scheck, der auf eine britische Bank gezogen ist. Allen erfolgreichen BieterInnen außerhalb von Nordamerika und Großbritannien wird zusätzlich ein Betrag in Höhe von US-$15,- für Bankgebühren in Rechnung gestellt; die Käufer können jedoch diese Gebühr von ihrer Zahlung abziehen, wenn sie die Bezahlung auf die oben geforderte Weise vornehmen. Zahlungen können mit Visa, Mastercard oder American Express erfolgen; jedoch wird bei Bezahlung mit Kreditkarte ein Aufschlag in Höhe von 3,5% berechnet.
6. Die Schätzungen sind in US-Dollar (US-$) und alle Gebote müssen auf gerade Dollarbeträge (US-$) lauten. CNG führt schriftliche Gebote im Namen der Bieter aus. Vorbehaltlich der Mindestgebote und Rufpreise werden schriftliche Gebote eine Steigerungsstufe (von etwa 10%) über dem nächsthöchsten Gebot während der Versteigerung zugeschlagen. Gebote unterhalb des Schätzwertes werden in der Regel nicht ermäßigt. Gebote über dem Schätzwert werden jedoch ermäßigt sofern dies möglich ist. Bei gleichhohen Geboten wird der Zuschlag dem zuerst abgegebenen Gebot erteilt. Ein schriftliches Gebot hat Vorrang vor einem, das während der Versteigerung abgegeben wird. Das Bieten erfolgt nach Losnummern. Die Lose werden nicht aufgeteilt. Die Bieter sind für Fehler beim Bieten selbst verantwortlich. Überprüfen Sie Ihren Gebotsbogen gründlich.
9. In dem Fall, daß ein erfolgreicher Bieter Zahlungstermine versäumt, behält sich CNG das Recht vor, die Waren erneut zu verkaufen; der Bieter erklärt sich damit einverstanden, alle anfallenden Kosten eines solchen Verkaufs zu zahlen und auch für den Fehlbetrag zwischen dem Wiederverkaufspreis und dem Preis des vormalss erfolgreichen Gebotes aufzukommen. CNG behält sich auch alle Rechte vor, die sich für CNG aus dem Handelsgesetzbuch für Pennsylvanien, dem Pennsylvania Uniform Commercial Code, ergeben; hierin eingeschlossen ist das Recht, jedwede nach erfolgtem Zuschlag fällig gewordenen Beträge, gegen beliebige künftige Einlieferungen, Ankäufe, Gelder oder Güter, die sich im Besitz von CNG befinden, aufzurechnen.
10. Umsatzsteuer, Porto, Transportkosten und Versicherung fallen in den Verantwortungsbereich des Käufers und werden allen Rechnungen, falls zutreffend, hinzugerechnet. Porto, Transportkosten und Versicherung für Bücher werden getrennt von denen für Münzen in Rechnung gestellt. Der Käufer erklärt sich bereit, angefallene und nicht entrichtete Steuern auch dann, wenn sie von CNG nicht in Rechnung gestellt wurden auf Verlangen zusammen mit aufgelaufenen Zinsen, sowie eventuell auferlegte Strafen zu bezahlen. Es fällt in den Verantwortungsbereich des Käufers, die Zollbestimmungen und andere Regeln im Ausland zu erfüllen.
12. Die Bieter verzichten, auf alle sich an dieser Auktion ergebenen Ansprüche hinsichtlich Schadenersatz für Aufwendungen, Schadenersatz für Folgeschäden oder einer über den verursachten Schaden hinausgehenden Entschädigung. Das einzige Recht, das einem Teilnehmer an der Auktion auf Grund eines auf die Auktion zurückgehenden Anspruches oder einer entsprechenden Streitfrage zusteht, besteht in einer zinslosen Rückvergütung des ganzen oder eines Teils des gezahlten Kaufpreises.
13. Alle Rechte, die BieterInnen oder Käufern von CNG gewährt werden oder ihnen anderweitig zur Verfügung stehen, und zwar gemäß diesen Auktionsbedingungen oder anderweitig, sind persönlicher Art und können nicht an eine andere Person oder einen Rechtsträger abgetreten oder übertragen werden, sei es durch gesetzlichen Rechtsübergang oder anderweitig. Keine dritte Partei kann sich auf Leistungen oder Rechte berufen, die durch diese Auktionsbedingungen gegeben werden. Bieter, die als Vertreter handeln, müssen diese Vertretung CNG vor der Auktion in schriftlicher Form offenlegen; andernfalls sind die Rechte auf den Vertreter beschränkt und sind nicht auf den nicht offengelegten Auftraggeber übertragbar.

Ihre schriftlichen Gebote müssen bis zum
28. Mai 1997 bei uns eingehen.

VIEL ERFOLG!

CONDITIONS DE VENTE AUX ENCHERES

Ceci est une vente aux enchères publiques et par correspondance organisée par Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). Faire une offre à l'enchère signifie l'acceptation des conditions suivantes:

1. Les objets proposés dans ce catalogue sont mis en vente par CNG agissant pour son propre compte et en tant qu'agent représentant divers autres propriétaires. Nous nous réservons le droit de refuser une offre ou enchère, de décider de la mise à prix, de fixer les paliers de hausse des enchères, de modifier l'ordre dans lequel se déroule la vente aux enchères, de relancer les enchères en cas de désaccord, de retirer un lot quelconque, de faire une offre pour le compte de CNG, de faire une offre pour le compte du propriétaire et de permettre de faire des enchères sur ses propres lots.

2. Tous les lots sont sujets à une commission de 10 % à la charge de l'acquéreur, laquelle sera ajoutée au prix de vente.

3. Toutes les pièces de monnaie sont garanties authentiques. L'attribution, la date, l'état et autres qualificatifs sont l'opinion de l'auteur du catalogue sans que ceci implique de garantie expresse ou implicite. Veuillez noter qu'une vente aux enchères n'est pas une vente conditionnelle. Les lots inspectés avant la vente et les lots achetés par des enchérisseurs dans la salle (y compris des enchérisseurs agissant pour le compte d'autres personnes) ne peuvent en aucun cas être retournés excepté en cas de problème d'authenticité. Toute contestation concernant la description ainsi que toute intention de retourner une monnaie des pièces, (excepté dans les cas de problèmes d'authenticité), doivent être formulées dans les 5 jours qui suivent la réception de l'envoi. Toute contestation ayant trait à l'authenticité doit être faite par écrit par l'acquéreur initial immédiatement et, il a l'obligation dans les plus brefs délais de renvoyer le lot à CNG dans le même état qu'il l'a acquis. Les valeurs estimatives sont données à titre purement indicatif et ne sont pas une définition fixe de la valeur réelle.

4. Les conditions de la vente prévoient le paiement comptant, les factures étant échues et payables immédiatement dès leur réception. Des intérêts et frais de collecte s'élevant à 2% par mois à compter de la date de la vente aux enchères seront payables sur les factures qui ne sont pas réglées dans les 30 jours qui suivent la date de la vente. Le paiement par chèque doit se faire soit en dollars US ($) si le chèque est tiré sur une banque américaine, soit en livres sterling anglaises (£) s'il est tiré sur une banque britannique. Tous les acquéreurs domiciliés ailleurs qu'en Amérique du Nord ou au Royaume-Uni se verront facturer un supplément de 15$ pour frais bancaires mais ils peuvent déduire si le paiement est effectué de la manière indiquée ci-dessus. Le paiement peut s'effectuer avec les cartes Visa, Mastercard ou American Express; le règlement par carte de crédit donne lieu toutefois à une majoration de 3,50%.

6. Les valeurs estimatives sont données en dollars ($US) et les offres/enchères doivent être en montants entiers en dollars ($). CNG exécutera les offres/enchères soumises par correspondance pour le compte des enchérisseurs. A part dans le cas d'une réserve, les offres par correspondance seront exécutées à approximativement 10% de plus que l'enchère la plus proche. Veuillez noter que les enchères inférieures aux valeurs estimatives sont rarement réduites mais que celles au-dessus de ces valeurs ont de fortes chances d'être réduites. En cas d'offres identiques, la première l'emporte. Une offre par correspondance l'emporte sur une offre identique dans la salle. Faites vos offres en écrivant le numéro du lot. Les lots ne seront pas divisés. Les enchérisseurs assumeront la responsabilité des erreurs sur leur bulletin d'enchère, c'est pourquoi il est recommandé de tout contrôler avec soin.

7. Quelques mots sur les prix minimum. CNG se réserve le droit de fixer un prix minimum pour n'importe quel lot. Aucune réserve ne sera toutefois supérieure à la valeur estimative et les lots se voient généralement attribuer un prix minimum correspondant à 60% de la valeur estimative.

9. Au cas où un acquéreur omet d'effectuer un paiement lorsque celui-ci est échu, CNG se réserve le droit de revendre le lot et l'acquéreur accepte de payer les frais raisonnables d'une telle vente et aussi de payer la différence entre le prix de la nouvelle vente et celui de l'enchère précédemment acceptée. CNG se réserve aussi tous les droits dont l'elle peut se prévaloir en vertu du Code Commercial Uniforme de Pennsylvanie, notamment le droit de déduire les sommes dues par un acquéreur sur un envoi futur ou sur une acquisition future ou sur des sommes d'argent ou marchandises étant en la possession de CNG.

10. La taxe sur les ventes, les frais postaux, la manutention et l'assurance sont la responsabilité de l'acquéreur et sont ajoutés à toutes les factures le cas échéant. Les frais postaux, de manutention et d'assurance pour des lots de livres seront facturés séparément des lots de pièces de monnaie. Dans le cas de toute taxe n'étant pas payée par l'acquéreur mais qui aurait dû être payée, même si elle n'a pas été facturée par CNG, l'acquéreur s'engage à régler le montant de celle-ci ainsi que les intérêts ou la pénalité étant imposés le cas échéant. Il incombe à l'acquéreur d'assurer l'observation de la réglementation douanière étrangère et autres règlements.

12. Les enchérisseurs acceptent de renoncer à toute revendication de dommages et intérêts en cas de dommage causé par la vente aux enchères CNG. Le seul recours qu'un participant à la vente aux enchères aura à l'issue d'une réclamation ou d'un différend sera un remboursement sans intérêts, de la totalité ou d'une partie du prix d'achat payé par le participant.

13. Tous les droits accordés par CNG ou dont les enchérisseurs et acquéreurs peuvent autrement se prévaloir leur sont personnels et ne peuvent pas être cédés ni transférés à une autre personne physique ou morale, que ce soit du fait de l'intervention de la loi ou autrement. Aucune tierce personne ne peut s'appuyer sur un avantage ou droit conféré par les présentes Conditions de Vente aux Enchères. Les enchérisseurs agissant en tant qu'intermédiaires doivent divulguer leur mandat d'agence par écrit à CNG avant la vente aux enchères; autrement les droits seraient exclusifs à l'agent et ne seraient pas cessibles au donneur d'ordre qu'il représente.

Les commissions doivent nous parvenir
avant le 28 Mai 1997.

BONNE CHANCE!

CONDIZIONI D'ASTA

L'asta è una licitazione pubblica per corrispondenza bandita da Classical Numismatic Group, Inc. (CNG). La presentazione di offerte all'asta comporta l'accettazione delle seguenti condizioni:

1. I lotti elencati in questo catalogo sono posti in vendita sia da CNG per proprio conto sia come agente di altri conferenti. CNG si riserva il diritto di rifiutare un'offerta, di determinare il prezzo d'apertura, di fissare gli incrementi di offerte, di variare l'ordine di svolgimento dell'asta, di riaprire la licitazione in caso di controversia, di ritirare un lotto, di fare offerte per conto di CNG stesso o di un affidatario e di permettere a un conferente di fare offerte per i propri lotti.
2. Tutti lotti sono soggetti ad una commissione del 10% che sarà aggiunta al prezzo di aggiudicazione.
3. Tutte le monete sono garantite autentiche. L'attribuzione, la data, le condizioni ed eventuali altre descrizioni sono opinioni del compilatore del catalogo nei confronti delle quali non si danno garanzie espresse o tacite. Va ricordato che una vendita all'asta non è una vendita con riserva di gradimento. I lotti esaminati prima dell'asta e i lotti acquistati dagli offerenti in sala (inclusi gli offerenti che fanno offerte per conto di terzi) non possono essere restituiti indipendentemente dalla ragione salvo nel caso di non autenticità. Tutte le rivendicazioni di descrizione inesatta e tutte le richieste di restituzione devono pervenire entro 5 giorni dal ricevimento del materiale. Le rivendicazioni di non autenticità devono essere inoltrate per iscritto dall'acquirente originale immediatamente dopo la scoperta dell'eventuale non autenticità e contemporaneamente l'acquirente deve restituire il lotto a CNG nelle stesse condizioni del momento dell'asta. Le stime s'intendono a puro titolo di orientamento e non sono espressioni di un'opinione di valore.
4. Le vendite sono per contanti con saldo delle fatture all'atto del ricevimento. Le fatture non saldate entro 30 giorni dalla data della vendita sono gravate del 2% a titolo di interesse ed addebito di riscossione a partire dalla data dell'asta. I pagamenti con assegno devono essere in dollari USA ($) su una banca americana o in sterline inglesi (£) su una banca britannica. A tutti gli aggiudicatari al di fuori dell'America del Nord e del Regno Unito vengono fatturati ulteriori $15 per competenze bancarie, somma che può essere dedotta se il pagamento è effettuato come sopra indicato. I pagamenti possono essere effettuati con carta di credito Visa, Mastercard o American Express essi sono in tal caso gravati di un 3,5% aggiuntivo.
5. Gli offerenti non noti a CNG devono fornire referenze di credito o versare una cauzione fissata a discrezione di CNG prima dell'apertura dell'asta. I minori di età non possono fare offerte senza il consenso scritto di un genitore che garantisca il pagamento. CNG può richiedere il pagamento in toto da un offerente prima della consegna dei lotti. Il diritto di proprietà non è trasmesso fintanto che i lotti non sono interamente saldati. Ad avvenuta consegna dei lotti l'acquirente assume piena responsabilità per le eventuali perdite o danni.
6. Le stime sono in dollari USA ($US) e le offerte devono essere in dollari o mettendo l'indicazione dei centesimi ($). CNG accetta offerte per corrispondenza. Le offerte per corrispondenza saranno eseguite con un incremento di circa il 10% sull'offerta più alta, prezzi minimi di base e prezzi di apertura permettendo. Va ricordato che le offerte al di sotto delle stime hanno raramente successo ma quelle sopra le stime hanno buona probabilità di aver successo. In caso di offerte identiche ha la preferenza quella pervenuta per prima. Un'offerta per corrispondenza gode di priorità su una identica in sala. Le offerte s'intendono per numero di lotto. Nessun lotto può essere suddiviso. Gli offerenti sono responsabili degli errori nelle offerte. Si prega di controllare attentamente il foglio offerte.
7. Per quanto riguarda i prezzi minimi di base, CNG si riserva il diritto di fissare un prezzo minimo per qualsiasi lotto, nessun prezzo minimo è superiore alla stima e generalmente è il 60% della stima.
8. Gli offerenti garantiscono personalmente il saldo delle offerte vincenti, inclusi gli offerenti che fanno offerte per conto di terzi e quelli che rappresentano associazioni o altri enti. Gli acquirenti che accettano di fare offerte per conto di terzi lo fanno a loro rischio e rimangono responsabili verso CNG per il saldo totale ai sensi delle presenti condizioni d'asta.
9. Se un acquirente non effettua un pagamento quando dovuto CNG si riserva il diritto di revendere il o i lotti e l'offerente s'impegna a far fronte al costo ragionevole di detta vendita ed a corrispondere l'eventuale differenza tra il prezzo di rivendita e il precedente prezzo di aggiudicazione. CNG si riserva inoltre tutti i diritti che gli spettano ai sensi del Codice Commerciale Uniformato della Pennsylvania, incluso il diritto di compensare una somma dovuta da un acquirente con futuri conferimenti o acquisti o denaro o merci in possesso del CNG.
10. Le imposte sulle vendite, le spese postali, i costi di amministrazione e l'assicurazione sono a carico dell'acquirente e sono aggiunte come appropriato a tutte le fatture. Le spese postali, i costi di amministrazione e l'assicurazione per lotti di libri sono fatturati separatamente dai lotti di monete. Nel caso di un'imposta o tassa dovuta e non corrisposta dall'acquirente, anche se non fatturata da CNG, l'acquirente si impegna a corrisponderla su richiesta unitamente agli eventuali interessi o penalità che possano derivare. E' responsabilità dell'acquirente rispettare le norme doganali o altri regolamenti vigenti all'estero.
11. I prezzi realizzati sono pubblicati dopo l'asta e sono comunicati per posta con il successivo catalogo CNG.
12. Gli acquirenti accettano di rinunciare a rivendicazioni per il rimborso di danni indiretti o di risarcimenti esemplari sorti in relazione all'asta. L'unica riparazione alla quale un partecipante all'asta ha diritto a fronte di una rivendicazione o controversia in relazione all'asta sarà il rimborso, senza interesse, di tutto o parte del prezzo di acquisto da esso versato.
13. Tutti i diritti garantiti da CNG o comunque a disposizione degli offerenti e degli acquirenti in base a queste condizioni d'asta o diversamente sono personali e non possono essere concessi o trasferiti a terzi, persone fisiche o giuridiche, sia in base a leggi che in altro modo. Nessun terzo può contare su benefici o diritti conferiti dalle presenti condizioni d'asta. Gli offerenti che fungono da agenti sono tenuti a informare per iscritto CNG prima dell'asta; in caso contrario i diritti sono limitati all'agente e non sono trasferibili al rappresentato non annunciato.
14. Qualsiasi controversia in relazione a quest'asta sarà regolata dalle leggi della Pennsylvania e sarà giudicata unicamente dalla County Court of Common Pleas di Lancaster o dalla Corte Distrettuale statunitense del Distretto Orientale di Pennsylvania e tutti gli offerenti si sottopongono alla personale giurisdizione dei suddetti tribunali a tale riguardo dietro notifica per posta raccomandata o certificata. In una controversia in relazione a quest'asta la parte vincente avrà diritto a recuperare i costi ragionevoli e le spese legali.

GREEK COINAGE

The male portraits on the coins of Carthaginian Spain have been taken to represent members of the family of Hannibal, the Barcas ruling in Spain. Heads representing Herakles-Melkart have been identified as Hamilkar Barca and Hannibal himself, with the seemingly younger head as Hasdrubal, brother of Hannibal. Barring any known portraits of the Barca family, and with no other clear portraiture in the Carthaginian series, it seems likely that the portraits are intended to represent the Punic gods Melkart (affiliated with the Greek Herakles) and Eshmoun-Adonis (affiliated with Apollo).

2. Castulo. Circa 2nd Century BC. AE 17mm (3.61 gm). Diademed head / Boar; star above. Villaronga pg. 337, 48; Burgos 566. Good VF, green patina. ($200)

6. Danube Region. Circa 2nd Century BC. AR Tetradrachm (16.98 gm). Imitating Thasos. Stylized head of Dionysos / Herakles with club and lion skin; legend reduced to dots, dashes and lines. Göbl Class V/A; CC-CBM I S223ff. EF for type, scratch on obverse. ($450)

Neapolis produced quantities of coins of serviceable if pedestrian die work. In this coin, we can see that the city could avail itself of the services of at least one true master engraver.

There is not an ethnic on these early silver drachms, but the attribution is clear; the first issues of Velia used a recognizable type from the parent city, Phokaia in Ionia (a hekate, Bodenstedt 36, with lion left). Velia was settled by colonists from Phokaia around 535 BC, some five years after being driven from their home city by the Persians and after several years of living by piracy on Corsica, until Etruscan and Carthaginian forces put an end to their raids. Williams assumes coinage began soon after the founding of the city and ends his first section of drachms around 510 BC. Bodenstedt, however, in his paradigm of annual issues from Phokaia, places the lion type around 506 BC. If Bodenstedt is correct in his dating, the drachms at Velia must have begun some time after 505 BC, compressing the entire issue (Williams period I, sections 1-5) into a shorter time span, circa 505-465 BC.

A Choice Tetrobol From Mende

211. Mende. Circa 423-358 BC. AR Tetrobol (2.68 gm). Inebriated Silenos reclining on the back of an ass, holding a kantharos / MENΔAIH, amphora with volute handles, all in incuse square. Noe, The Mende (Kaliandra) Hoard, ANSNNM 27, pl.10, b (same dies); SNG ANS 372 (same dies). EF, original dark find patina. Choice and Rare. ($2000)

A marvelously realistic portrait of the bemused drinking companion of Dionysos. The figure on the Mende tetrobols is frequently identified as Dionysos himself, such as he appears on the tetradrachms. This crisply detailed tetrobol readily provides the correct identification. The figure does not carry the thyrsos, the attribute of Dionysos, and is shown with horse's ears. Furthermore, unlike the god, Silenos is depicted as decidedly ithyphallic!

212. MACEDON, Neapolis? Before 600 BC. EL 1/48 Stater (0.33 gm). Gorgoneion / Incuse punch. Rosen—; cf. Svoronos pl.IX, 29-30 (staters). VF. ($600)

The type is unrecorded among the electrum coinage of early Ionia. A rare series of electrum staters is attributed to Macedon, and Neapolis seems the most likely mint place.

213. Neapolis. Circa 525-450 BC. AR Stater (9.82 gm). Gorgoneion / Quadripartite incuse square. SNG ANS 407. Toned VF, digs on forehead between eyes. ($450)

230. Philip II. 359-336 BC. AV Stater (8.59 gm). Pella mint. Circa 340-328 BC. Laureate head of Apollo / Charioteer driving biga right; trident below. Le Rider 275 (D131/R—). Near EF. ($1750)

This coin does appear to be struck from the same obverse die as Le Rider 275, but for one important difference. Le Rider 275 is unique in the Pella gold series in having a symbol on the obverse, an ax or thyrsos behind the head of Apollo. Le Rider comments that this may have been added to the die at a later point, and this coin proves that die D131 exists in an earlier state, minus the added symbol.

233. Alexander III. 336-323 BC. AV Distater (17.01 gm). Aegae mint? Helmeted head of Athena; serpent on helmet / Nike standing left, holding wreath and stylus; pankratist (boxer/wrestler) on guard to left; Ao monogram. Price 196; Müller 639. Fine. ($3000)

The symbol is described in detail by Lacroix, "Aspects de la Numismatique Sicyonienne" (sic), Revue Belge 1964, pp.19-52. The pankration, one of the most popular events in the Olympics and other festival games, was described by Philstratos as "the best and most manly event in the Olympics". Evidently manly Greeks disapproved of biting and eye-gouging, the only tactics not allowed to the participants.

AV

235. Alexander III. 336-323 BC. AV Stater (8.58 gm). Tarsos mint? Circa 327-323 BC. Helmeted head of Athena; griffin on helmet / ΑΛΕΞΑΝΔΡΟΥ, Nike standing left, holding wreath and stylus; monogram in left field. Price—; Müller—. EF. ($2500)

A most distinctive stater of Alexander, unrecorded in Price's corpus. A most attractive representation of Athena with short curly "permed" hair in a style that is infrequently encountered. The closest parallel is found in the obverse die of Price 3009, a stater of Tarsos. The magistrate's monogram signing the reverse is found on tetradrachms of Kolophin, Magnesia and Paphos, but not Tarsos. On the basis of style, it seems most likely that this stater was struck at Tarsos.

Price 1003; Waggoner, "The Propontis Hoard," Revue Numismatique 1979, 30 (same obverse die). EF, light reverse porosity. ($450)

The letters ΔΙΟΣΚ on the reverse of this coin are the abbreviation for the name Dioskouridas, a common name in inscriptions of the late 2nd and 1st centuries BC. The exact identification of this individual is unknown, but was probably a high ranking Mesembrian official.

As indicated by the lettering, this counterstamp was applied in Apamea. Other bow and bow-case counterstamps, with different lettering, have been attributed to Sardes, Adramyttium, Tralles and Pergamon. Price has linked these counterstamps to the introduction of the cistophoric coinage circa 180 BC. The application of these counterstamps permitted the circulation of Alexandrine coins in the years following the reform.

An apparently unpublished tetradrachm for an otherwise unrecorded mint for Alexander tetradrachms. The astragalo symbol figures prominently on the coinage of Selge (see SNG von Aulock 5247-5266), thus making the mint attribution for this coin reasonably secure. A very important coin for the Alexander specialist and of considerable interest! Lot comes with a David Sear Certificate of Authenticity.

*The chronology of the early "owls" of Athens remains one of the most complex problems of Greek numismatics. Since the pioneering early 20th century studies by Svoronos and Seltman, a great deal of evidence has been accumulated for the series, but much work remains in interpreting that evidence. The study by Kraay in NumChron 1956 has been reinforced by the analysis of early 5th century hoards, such as the Asyut hoard, and the general period of striking has been centered on 510-480 BC, between the expulsion of the Peisistratid tyrants and the destruction of Athens by the Persians. Within that brief time there was an explosion of coinage as Athens prospered under its new freedom. The process of clarifying the issues of that period is complicated by the archaizing tendencies of the engravers (using styles and motifs long outdated in other art forms), and the massive quantities of dies required, employing a number of engravers of varying aptitudes. Until a firm sequence of die links can be established, the precise order of issues remains clouded by uncertainty.*

This series of Elis staters is characterized by a limited number of dies that show the effects of extensive overuse; a multiplicity of die defects partially repaired by re-cutting. Seltman suggests this issue is a direct result of the Peace of Nikias in 421 BC, a temporary truce in the Peloponnesian War that, among other clauses, allowed Athenians and their allies full access to the sacred site of Olympia. The increase in commerce would place heavy demands on the Elean mint. Alternatively, Nicolet-Pierre places the issue at the conclusion of the war, circa 400 BC, with the same results, an increase in demand for circulating coinage.

Amastris, a niece of Darios of Persia, became a pawn in the complex dynastic quarrels that followed the death of Alexander. She had been given as wife to Alexander's general Krateros, but was dismissed when Krateros arranged a marriage with the daughter of Antipater. She then married Dionysos, tyrant of Herakleia, by whom she had three children before his death in 306 BC. Her next brief marriage in 302 BC was to Lysimachos of Thrace, who soon acquired a more profitable alliance by wedding the daughter of Ptolemy Philadelphos of Egypt. Tiring of the whirl of alliances, Amastris retired to the territory of Herakleia, where she founded a new city named after herself. She was not destined to find peace, however; in 288 BC her two covetous sons had her drowned and seized her city for themselves.

The cities of Byzantium and Kalchedon struck a long series of posthumous drachms and tetradrachms in the name of Lysimachos, lasting to the end of the 3rd century BC. In this one brief instance civic pride took precedence over pragmatic trade interests, and the familiar name of Lysimachos was replaced with the name of the city.

Rare Electrum Stater of Lampsakos

EL

Ex Stevenson Collection (CNG XXVI, 11 June 1993), lot 86; Bank Leu Auktion 28 (May 5-6, 1981), lot 135.

This is the sole electrum issue of Lampsakos of the 5th century BC, all other stater issues being of fine gold. Its anomalous weight standard is known only for Lampsakos, and all known specimens are struck from the same dies, indicating a very limited striking. Earlier opinions placed it at the time of the Athenian Coinage Decree of 449 BC, when all silver coinage of the Delian League was ordered recoined into Athenian owls. This electrum stater would have been intended to evade that rule. However, recent hoard studies have suggested a date later in the 5th century, perhaps at the time of the revolt of Lampsakos against Athens in 412 BC. The winged horse would not represent the Greek Pegasus, but rather a mythical beast in the same category as the winged boars and bears seen on the archaic coinage of Asia Minor, and having an origin in eastern mythology. The use of such a type could be seen as a reaction against the aggressive hellenizing of Athens.

The history and distribution of the early electrum coinage of Asia Minor is known only in the broadest outline. While certain types, such as the stag of Ephesos and the seal of Phokaia can be identified with some certainty as distinctive civic badges, the vast majority of attributions can be based only on educated guesswork, aided by reports of site finds such as the great Artemision deposit of 1904-1905. Some order can be put to the confusing series by identifying which weight standard a coin was struck to. The cities of Asia Minor were grouped into informal leagues or trading networks, sharing the same standards. The two most common stater standards are named after the most prominent of these cities, Milesos (Milesian, c.14.1 grams), and Phokaia (Phokaic, c.16.2 grams). Other weight standards have been identified as Croesid (later Persian, c. 10.8 grams), Aeginetan (c.12.5 grams), Lampsacene (c.15.3 grams) and Euboic-Attic (c.17 grams). While this will serve to categorize a stater easily enough, by the time you get down to 1/24 or 1/48 staters, the difference between standards may only be 0.03 grams, too slight to get a certain reading when wear on the coins and the accuracy of the average scale is taken into account. The standards given for the fractions offered here are our best approximations based on these two factors and may vary from the attributions of the Rosen collection. It will be noted that coins of identical type in the Rosen collection are given to two different systems based on weights.

Two Electrum Staters From The Period Of The Ionian Revolt

EL

Although this stater was attributed to Mytilene on Lesbos in the Tkalec auction, the use of the Milesian weight standard instead of the Phokaic standard used by that city makes such an attribution unlikely. The types of this and the following stater are indeed suggestive of Mytilene, and the type of the present coin is taken directly from the incuse reverse of a hekte (Bodenstedt 15). The use of this type tied with this weight standard leads to the conclusion that this must be included among the electrum issues of the Ionian Revolt of 499-494 BC. Aristagoras, tyrant of Miletos under the Persians, inspired a rebellion among the Greeks of Asia Minor when he found his own position threatened by his unsuccessful attack on the island of Naxos, a port intended as a stepping-stone for an eventual Persian invasion of mainland Greece. Although the revolt centered on Ionia, cities in Aeolis and Caria also joined in the fighting, as well as the islands of Samos, Chios, Lesbos and Cyprus. The tyrant of Mytilene, Koes, was stoned to death by disgruntled citizens. This stater might have been struck at Mytilene itself, but scholars have suggested that all of the Ionian Revolt staters were struck at Miletos, the center of the revolt which finally fell to Persian forces in 494 BC.

Countermarked Lydian Third Staters

The countermarks or banker's marks seen on these electrum third staters have not been noted previously in such a large concentration. They are of the same type that appear on numerous Persian silver sigloi, but are infrequently encountered on electrum or gold. Their non-appearance on Lydian electrum would imply that the countermarks were applied elsewhere in the Persian empire. Some of the countermarks resemble the civic symbols of other Greek states, and some have been interpreted as Cypriot or Phoenician letters. See BMC Arabia etc, pp.cxxxvi-cxl for discussion and table of the various punches found on sigloi. Unlike most Lydian electrum, which must have remained within the confines of the kingdom, this little handful must have seen extensive circulation.

The Achaemenid kings, ruling a land empire too vast to be governed from Persepolis, divided their territory into twenty districts, to be administered by satraps, from the Old Persian xshathrapavan - "kingdom protector". These governors were responsible for all military and fiscal affairs within their provinces, and many quickly followed the route to wealth and power, often becoming dire threats to their royal overlords. Using their autonomy to its fullest, the satraps governing the eastern Greek states gained control of the wealth of Asia Minor, represented by the region's productive mines, the profitable trade routes between east and west, and battle-trained Greek mercenaries spun-off by the interminable wars between the states, all available to the strongman willing to use them. All of these factors had played a role in the development of the earliest coinage from Asia Minor, and a Persian satrap is responsible for the earliest true portrait found on a coin, possibly Tissaphernes of Mysia.

The satraps of Caria, starting with Hyssaldemos, would rule as a virtually independent dynasty for almost a century, strengthening their own position against that of their ostensible overlord, the Persian king in far Persepolis. Hekatomnos struck the first coins for the Carian satrapy, copying the lion types of Miletos. His later issues introduced the type that would become the emblem of the dynasty, the figure of Zeus Labraundos, whose temple was near Mylasa, the birthplace of Hekatomnos. Hekatomnos died in 377 BC, to be followed in succession by each of his three sons, Maussollos, Hidrieus and Pixodaros. Maussollos expanded his territory at the expense of his neighboring satraps and in defiance of the Persian king. He moved the capital from Mylasa to Halikarnassos, at which point the facing head of Apollo/Helios becomes the standard obverse type for the Carian tetradrachm. Although condemned by the Greek authors for his avarice and thirst for power, the satrap was acknowledged as a man of culture, embellishing his capital with remarkable architecture (his Mausoleum being one of the Wonders of the Ancient World), and encouraging the study of science and art. Hidrieus continued in his brother's footsteps and added the islands of Chios, Kos and Rhodes to his domain, three important centers of commerce which had until then managed to fend off the growing Carian empire (which by now it was in all but name).

The Carians appear to have overextended themselves, however, for by the reign of Pixodaros the satrap is seen making dynastic marriages to preserve his position between Persia and the Greeks. One of his daughters married Rhoontopates, a Persian courtier who would eventually succeed him, while another was offered to the Macedonian house (see lot 511 for further details of this episode). That offer, which might have altered the course of western history, was rejected after Alexander's meddling. As it was, Rhoontopates would meet the army of Alexander in battle, and the Carian dynasty would come to a sudden end, absorbed into the expanding Greek empire.

Only four specimens are known for this extremely rare satrap: one in the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris, one in the Fitzwilliam Museum in Cambridge, one whose whereabouts was listed as unknown but is now possibly this specimen, and a fourth specimen sold privately by CNG. In fact, the known specimens are such that the actual spelling of Rhoontopates' name has been a matter of speculation. The spelling "Orontobates" is the form of the name as it appears in Arrian. However, as the present specimen (and the coin sold previously by CNG) clearly establishes, the spelling on the coin is "Rhoontopates", a Persian name that Arrian obviously hellenized.

Rhoontopates, a Persian noble, first appears in history during the reign of Philip II of Macedon. As Philip commenced his invasion of Asia, the satrap of Caria, Pixodaros, proposed an alliance to be sealed by the marriage of Pixodaros' daughter with Philip's son Philip Arrhidaeos. As negotiations progressed, Alexander learned of the plans and secretly sent the famous actor Thettalus to Pixodaros to tell Pixodaros that Philip Arrhidaeos was a half-wit and to offer Alexander himself as bridegroom. Alexander's meddling ruined the negotiations, no alliance was made, and Caria remained an enemy to resist Alexander in his eventual march through Asia. Pixodaros thereupon married his daughter to Rhoontopates, who was the first Persian to marry into the ruling family of Caria. Philip, infuriated by Alexander's meddling, punished his son. The episode shows Alexander's immaturity, as he did not realize that Philip was prepared to sacrifice Philip Arrhidaeos to a Carian marriage but would not have compromised his heir in such an alliance.

After the death of Pixodaros in 334 BC, Rhoontopates succeeded him, and as Alexander marched south he found himself opposed by the man who had married the woman to whom he had offered himself. With the assistance of Greek mercenaries, Rhoontopates led a spirited defense of the capital city of Halikarnassos, which fell to Alexander after fierce fighting that helped establish Alexander's reputation for siege warfare. Rhoontopates continued to hold outlying areas of Caria for a further few months, but in 333 BC Alexander's conquest of the province was completed.

A Tetradrachm of the Satrap Memnon

512. CARIA? Persian Satraps. Circa 349-333 BC. AR Tetradrachm (15.31 gm). Persian king or hero in kneeling-running stance, drawing bow / Satrap on horseback, thrusting with spear; eagle's head in left field. Cf. Price, "The Syria 1989 Hoard", in Essays Carson/Jenkins; Babelon, Les Perse 620-623 for type, unpublished with eagle head symbol. EF. ($2500)

Babelon had attributed this series to Evagoras II, king of Salamis on Cyprus, while Price leaves it as an uncertain Persian satrap. One possible source might be the satrap Memnon (336-333 BC), originally the governor of Lydia, and after the defeat of the Persians at the Granicus, the supreme commander of Persian forces in the west. Memnon came to the assistance of Rhoontopates of Caria, but after the fall of Halikarnassos conceived the bold plan of carrying the war to Greece itself, where the Spartans and other Greeks, chafing under Macedonian rule, offered potential allies. Darius provided him with the funds to equip a fleet and mercenary army, but after capturing Chios and part of Lesbos, Memnon died of illness before he could reduce Mytilene, a rear base necessary to support his invasion fleet. The Persian king on these tetradrachms might represent Memnon's lost capital at Sardeis (the mint for Persian darics and sigloi in the west) as well as the treasure provided by Darius to support his operations against Alexander.

Good VF, recently cleaned. ($300)

The tripod symbol is found on tetradrachms of Antiochos III from Antioch, dated to the middle part of his reign by Newell. However, the exergue symbol is unrecorded, and the portrait style in no way marks this coin as an issue of the central mint of Antioch, nor does it resemble any other issue of an official mint. At this time (202-198 BC) Antiochos was conducting his overwhelmingly successful assault on the Ptolemies of Egypt, quickly depriving them of all their possessions in Phoenicia and Palestine. The crudely prepared dies of this coin may mark it as an unofficial issue struck in the name of Antiochos and reflecting the newly expanded sphere of influence of the Seleukid kingdom.

581. PHOENICIA, Arados. Circa 450-400 BC. AR Stater (10.14 gm). Laureate head of Melkart / Galley to right, waves below, dotted border on three sides, crescent-shaped depression below (the harbor of Arados?). BMC Phoenicia pg.4, 18. Toned, good VF, die breaks by forehead of Melkart. Rare. ($500)

Paul Naster, "La Technique des Revers Partiellement Incus de Monnaies Phéniciennes", in ANS Centennial Publication, pp.503-511, details the unique employment of combined bas relief and incuse components on coins of Arados, Byblos, Sidon and Tyre, seemingly influenced by Egyptian sculptural technique. While most of the types are self explanatory (e.g., the owl of Tyre, the hunting scenes of Sidon where the prey is shown in incuse), the crescent on the coins of Arados is passed on without comment. In light of Arados' significance as a trading port, and its use of a galley as a civic badge, it seems likely that the incuse crescent is intended to represent the busy harbor at Arados.

Very Rare Stater of Tyre

586. PHOENICIA, Tyre. Circa 450 BC. AR Stater (Dishekel) (13.64 gm). Dolphin leaping over waves; $\omega\lambda\omega$ - "thirtieth" (of a mina) / Owl with crook and flail (not outlined) in incuse square. Kraay, ACGC 1047; Traité II 985. Toned, good VF, some horn silver. Very rare, possibly the first coinage of Tyre. (\$3000)

The significance of this piece was first noted by Kraay and Moorey in RN X (1968), "Two Fifth Century Hoards from the Near East"; I. Jordanian hoard, 88 where it was the only coin of Tyre in a hoard buried around 445 BC. Considering the prominent position that Tyrian coins take in later hoards, the authors concluded that this must have been the first issue of coinage from that city.

As befitting their place astride the trade routes between east and west, the Nabataeans strove to accommodate the various peoples they dealt with on a constant basis. The silver coins of Obodas are the size and weight of an Attic drachm, but analysis of the silver content shows that it is equivalent in value to the Roman denarius.

Ex Pipito Collection (Superior Galleries, 12-14 December 1987), lot 681.

At the end of the First Punic War in 246 BC, Carthage found herself confronted with a dilemma. Large numbers of Greek, Italian and African mercenaries had been hired to pursue the war with Rome, and now Carthage, defeated and bankrupt, did not have any money for the pay owed to them. Rebellion broke out in Sardinia and Africa. The latter situation became critical when one of the leaders, Matho, a native Libyan, inspired the native population to join the mercenaries against their Punic Carthaginian overlords.

Military unrest became a nationalist war of liberation. Coins were struck in the name of Libya and "M", which has been taken as either "machanat" - the Camp (of the mercenaries), or perhaps Matho, their leader. The first issues were apparently on overstruck Carthaginian silver shekels, but later issues are found on newly prepared flans, although the fineness of the silver seems to vary greatly. Hamilcar Barca, the great Carthaginian general, finally suppressed the revolt in 238 BC.

Rare Denarius of Juba II

650. KINGS OF MAURITANIA. Juba II. 25 BC-23 AD. AR Denarius (2.28 gm). Year 31 (6/7 AD). Caesarea in Mauritania mint. REX IVBA, diadem head of Juba right / CAESAREA REG AN XXXI, lion skin, club, quiver and bow. SNG Copenhagen—; Mazard 188 (described as "unique"). VF. Rare. ($500)

The use of the attributes of Herakles by Juba is not merely the use of a well known theme, but a claim of direct descent from the mythic hero. Herakles fought with and strangled the giant Antaeus as he passed through Libya on his way to gather the golden apples of the Hesperides. Legend claimed that Herakles also dallied with a local maiden named Tingis, whose offspring Sophax founded the Mauritanian dynasty. Juba emphasized his prestigious ancestry even as his African kingdom gradually lost its autonomy to Rome.

As with many of the moneyers' types of the late 1st century BC, C. Numonius Vaala's reverse type refers to an historic event in his family's past. We cannot know which specific ancestor is referred to, but the scene depicts a specific military action that brought a specific honor to the soldier involved. During the siege of a city or an enemy camp, the first soldier to breach the walls was awarded the corona vallaris, or "wall crown". The cognomen Vaala became an hereditary title among the Numonii, to be displayed proudly by the first member of the family to achieve the office of moneyer.

An Exceptional Denarius of Cn. Domitius Calvinus

756. Cn. Domitius Calvinus. 39 BC. AR Denarius (4.27 gm). Spanish mint. OSCA, bearded male head right / DOM. COS. ITER. IMP., simpulum, sprinkler, axe and priest's hat. Crawford 532/1; Burgos 1509. Choice EF. Very rare this nice. ($2500)

Cn. Domitius Calvinus was appointed governor of Spain by Octavian after that province was ceded by Sextus Pompey, son of Pompey the Great. The province was in a state of chaos after years of civil war and the rule by Sextus, who governed as little more than a brigand. The stern Calvinus, formerly magister equites under Caesar, pacified the province, putting down a revolt by the Ceretani, although not before subjecting a legionary detachment to the ancient punishment of decimation (executing one out of ten men) for cowardice in the face of the enemy. The minting of these denarii, probably at Osca itself, marks the restoration of Roman order in Spain and the renewed flow of Spanish silver to the Roman treasury.

*When Vespasian was proclaimed emperor by the legions in the East in 69, he left his son Titus to quell the Jewish uprising under the leadership of the zealots, John of Giscala and Simon of Gerasa. Titus accomplished the task in 70 AD, and in the following year, Vespasian, Titus and Domitian celebrated a splendid triumph in Rome. Several different reverse types were employed on the coinage by the Flavians to commemorate the triumph over the Jewish zealots. On the reverse of the coin offered here, the palm tree of seven fronds represents Judaea, while Victory inscribes on a shield what would have been the legend 'OB CIV SER,' or ob cives servatos ("because of the citizens having been served"). In his study of the Judea Capta series, Brin states that the "title was in recognition of the awarding of an oak-wreath to any citizen who had saved the lives of his fellow citizens in circumstances requiring extreme valor." He further comments that the title was fitting to Vespasian (and thereby to Titus) for rescuing Roman citizens from the threat of the zealots by conquering Judaea.*

'Port of Trajan' Sestertius

894. TRAJAN. 98-117 AD. Æ Sestertius (25.52 gm). Struck 115 AD. IMP CAES NERVAE TRAIANO AVG GER DAC P M TR [P COS V P P], laureate head right, drapery on far shoulder / PORTVM TRAIANI, S-C in exergue, basin of Trajan's harbor at Porto, surrounded by warehouses and ships in center. RIC II 471; BMCRE 770a; Hill 655; Cohen 305. Fine, brown and green patina, light porosity. Extremely rare. ($5000)

Documentation in ancient sources is plentiful concerning the Port of Trajan (cf. Pliny, Ep. 6.31, letter to Cornelius); however, the exact location of the port is uncertain. In Untersuchungen zur Römischen Reichsprägung des Zweiten Jahrhunderts, teil 1, Die Reichsprägung zur Zeit des Trajan, pp.212-3, Strack claims that it is the harbour of Trajan at Ostia as opposed to that at Centumcellae. Mattingly, in the introduction to BMCRE, vol. II, pg.civ, questions Strack's conclusion. Perhaps future archaeological fieldwork will determine the precise location of the port depicted on this issue.

This coin can be more closely dated by the magistrate's office. Glaukon appears as strategos for the first time earlier in the Severan period; he appears on a coin of Germe in the name of Plautilla, hence between 202-205 AD. He must have accepted his second magistracy between 205-209 AD, since it is recorded on a coin of Geta as Caesar. The rather crowded reverse features deities that appear individually on numerous Germe coins in the 2nd and 3rd centuries, but not in this grouping, the significance of which is uncertain. We cannot say for sure if reference is being made to a specific event, but the posture of Tyche presenting a wreath to a seated figure (or being presented one herself) is often associated with the sponsoring of the agonistic games, important athletic events and festivals proclaimed by the emperor and eagerly sought by ambitious towns for the prestige (and income) that the city derived from the affairs. On the other hand, the city fathers would be tapped for hefty contributions toward expenses, often leaving individual magistrates like Glaukon bankrupt! He at least got his name on the coin. Germe may have celebrated such a festival, which perhaps coincided with the elevation of Severus' younger son Geta to the rank of Augustus.

Rare "FECVNIDITAS" Coinage of Julia Domna

993. JULIA DOMNA, wife of Septimius Severus. Died 217 AD. AR Denarius (2.95 gm). Struck 207 AD. RIC IV 549; BMCRE 21 (Septimius and Caracalla); Hill 850; RSC 35. Toned, near EF. Rare reverse type.

($2000)

The reverse type and legend allude to the fertility (and thus, prosperity) not only of the Roman empire under the Severans, but to Julia Domna as the mother of Caracalla and Geta. The depiction of the four children in association with Fecunditas or Tellus represents the passing of seasons and the prosperity associated with the harvests.

RIC IV 36; BMCRE pg.503, *; RSC 88. Lightly toned, EF. ($2000)

*The dating and sequence of the eastern coinage of Macrinus has been subject to much discussion, engendered by a curious reversal in his titles. As Curtis Clay noted in "The Roman Coinage of Macrinus and Diadumenian", Numismatische Zeitschrift 93, pp. 21-40, Macrinus' coins showing one (first) consulship follow the coins showing a second consulship. Apparently his first consular acclamation was an honorary title frequently given to equestrian officials. When he became a true consul in January 218, he was titled consul for the second time on his coinage until he apparently insisted on constitutional correctness. The honest emperor also did not press the claim of having won a victory over the Parthian king Artabanos; he was in fact repeatedly defeated by the invading Persian army, and only staved off disaster by agreeing to a substantial payment of some 15,000,000 drachms to cement a truce. The "Victoria Parthica" and quadriga coin types, and imperial title Parthicus were short lived phenomena, as ephemeral as his unfortunate reign.*

Upon Philip's accession early in 244 while on campaign with Gordian III in the East, he quickly declared a truce with the Sasanian king Shapur I, left the command of the East to his brother, Gaius Julius Priscus, and hurried to Rome to consolidate his hold on power. His arrival in Rome was accompanied by a largesse that was distributed to the citizenry, of which this coin is a splendid example. The reverse design depicting the arrival in Rome of the new emperor with hand raised in a triumphant gesture leaves little to the imagination of Philip's altruistic aspirations for a tranquil future. However, he goes further and breaks with tradition by employing the reverse legend 'AVGG' which had, until the time of Philip, only been used if there were two Augusti. The new use of the term thus stresses Philip's indication to the Roman people the establishment of a dynasty, which naturally would have been viewed as a return to a more stable time such as that under the Antonines. For a short article on this reverse type on Philip's coinage, see Fred Kleiner, "Equestrian Portraits of Philip the Arab" in Floregium Numismaticum: Studia in Honorem U. Westermark Edita (Stockholm, 1992), pp.197ff.

A Collection of Antoniniani of Postumus

Postumus, the governor of Lower Germany, revolted from Gallienus in the autumn of 260 and created the Gallic empire, which was to survive as a separate state for fifteen years. The breakaway empire was initially composed of the three Gallic provinces, Lugdunensis, Aquitania and Narbonensis, plus Upper and Lower Germany. Eventually, Britain and Spain would join in the revolt.

Postumus was extremely popular, and enjoyed outstanding success in defending and restoring the Rhine frontier from Frankish and Alemannic incursions. However, by 268 his popularity had waned, and in February 269, the governor of Upper Germany, Laelianus, revolted. Laelianus' support seems to have rapidly withered however, and within just a few months, Postumus had defeated the usurper. Postumus' downfall came when he was murdered by his soldiers for refusing to allow them to pillage the city of Moguntiacum (Mainz), the headquarters of Laelianus.

The following collection consists of many rare types and coins in exceptional condition for the type. The remainder of this collection will be sold in our September Mail Bid Sale.

1080. MARIUS. 269 AD. Antoninianus (2.79 gm). Cologne. IMP C M AVR MARIVS AVG, radiate, draped and cuirassed bust right / VICTO-R-IA AVG, Victory running right, holding wreath and palm. RIC V pt.2, 18; Gilliam pg.25, 23. EF. ($300)

After the deaths of Postumus and Laelianus in early 269, Marius employed two mints for the production of his coinage, one thought to have been located at Trier (Treveri), and the second at Cologne (Colonia Agrippinensis). Control of the mint at Cologne had been gained by Laelianus during his revolt from Postumus, and it subsequently passed to Marius upon Laelianus' death. In an effort to speed production, Marius employed the reverse dies already present at the mint for his own coinage. The reverse die of the coin presented here is a shared die of Laelianus.

Unpublished Tetricus I and II Antoninianus

1081. TETRICUS I and TETRICUS II. 270-273 AD. Antoninianus (2.98 gm). This reverse type alludes to Vulcan's protection of Thessalonica during the massive Gothic onslaughts that occurred in 269. The local inhabitants believed they were saved by Vulcan and the Cabiri, the latter being their patron deities and the sons of Vulcan.

Unpublished Alexandrian Mint Carus Aureus

1086. CARUS. 282-283 AD. AV Aureus (4.68 gm). Alexandria mint. IMP CAESAR M AVR CARVS AVG, laureate and draped bust right / VICTO-R C-ARO, Victory walking right, holding wreath and palm. RIC V pt.2, -. Unpublished. EF. ($15,000)

Upon the death of Probus, Carus, the praetorian prefect, was proclaimed emperor by the army. He immediately conferred the rank of Caesar on his sons, Carinus and Numerian, then set out on a series of successful campaigns against the Persians. Before he could follow up on his successes however, he was struck by a bolt of lightning and died. At least this is the story according to the Historia Augusta, and it is hardly credible. It is much more likely that he was murdered by either Aper, the praetorian prefect, or by Diocletian, the commander of the imperial bodyguard. All of Carus' gold coinage is rare and especially this provincial mint issue from Alexandria.

1093. CARAUSIUS. 287-293 AD. Æ Antoninianus (5.52 gm). London mint(?). IMP CARAVSIVS P F AVG, radiate, draped and cuirassed bust right / PAX AVG, Pax standing left, holding olive-branch and vertical sceptre; BRI. Cf. RIC V pt.2, 1087; N. Shiel, The Episode of Carausius and Allectus, BAR 40 (1977), pg.179, 3 and pl.T, 3. Near EF. Extremely rare! ($1200)

The 'BRI' in the exergue is most likely a contraction for Britannia, although it has been debated whether the letters could be a contraction of the Roman town of Viriconium (=Briconium=Wroxeter), the site where the first example of this type was unearthed in 1925. The stylistic affinities to the unmarked issues and the regular London mint issues suggest that this coin was an early transitional issue of the London mint.

According to Shiel, this issue portrays Carausius' propaganda policies within his own sphere of influence. It was important not so much the way he was viewed by those outside of his domain, but rather how he was perceived by his own subjects, and thus the fraternal aspect of the obverse portraiture. Shiel notes only seventeen published specimens, and therefore feels that the evidence is insufficient to arrive at any precise chronology for the issue. However, he does present theories that would indicate an issue date sometime between 290, a time when Carausius had established peace with the central emperors after their unsuccessful attempt to remove him in 289, and 293 when Constantius was elevated to the rank of Caesar.

L. Domitius Alexander led a short lived revolt against Maxentius from 308 to 311, holding Africa and Sardinia. There is little known about this usurper, but there is evidence in an inscription (CIL viii, 22183) that he and Constantine allied themselves in opposition to Maxentius. P. Salama in "Recherches numismatiques sur l'usurpateur africain L. Domitius Alexander," Proceedings, International Numismatic Congress 1973, pg.365, note 2, suggests that at the latest, the pact was entered into by autumn of 310.

The Ptolemaic cult of Serapis and Isis enjoyed great popularity throughout Hellenistic and Roman times, and indeed the Romans, like the Greeks and Persians before them, were fascinated by the culture and monuments of ancient Egypt. The Ptolemies and the Roman emperors were not content with just being the foreign rulers of this fascinating land, but they wanted to be viewed as Pharaohs and the legitimate successors of the Dynastic pharaohs. To this end, they portrayed themselves as Pharaohs to the native population and even brought back certain aspects of the Egyptian culture and religion to their own native countries and cities. The Egyptian concept of the Pharaoh as a god was appealing to the Roman emperors (the aging Julius Caesar was especially taken with this concept during his romance with Cleopatra). This particular little bronze was possibly issued during the time of Julian II in an attempt to revive the pagan religions and institutions as Christianity started to overshadow them in both importance and popularity. The Egyptian god of the underworld, Anubis, also the god who oversaw the mummification process, is depicted on the reverse of this coin which reflects on the Egyptian pre-occupation with death and the afterlife.

1207. VISIGOTHS in Spain. Circa 650 AD. Æ 21mm (8.59 gm). Ispalis mint. Crude facing bust, consisting of a globe with prominent "nose" on shaft placed on crescent / 29B(A)? flanking small cross. Crusafont—. Good VF, olive green patina. Struck on a crudely cast flan. Rare and unpublished. ($750)

A completely unknown Visigothic bronze, both in type and size. The general form is similar to the Ispalis small bronzes with crude head and SP, but 29B(A) is unrecorded. Could it be an abbreviation for Ispalis in B(A)etica, giving both city and province? The weight proves considerably higher than any known Visigothic bronze, and if struck to a consistent standard, may represent a new 5 unit (nummi) coin. An important discovery coin in the Visigothic series and worthy of further research.

Justin had been an illiterate peasant from Thrace who had acquired the throne through his natural strength and cunning, but he understood the value of education, especially for his relatives. His nephew Peter was sent to Constantinople, and when his uncle became emperor, the newly re-named Justinian was his trusted advisor. When Justin's health began to fail in 527, Justinian was readily accepted as co-emperor and the transition of power was calm. The proclamation coinage of Justin and Justinian would only have been struck for some 17 weeks, but the large number of known dies for the solidi and the number of significant varieties amongst those dies testifies to the hurried production of great quantities of gold. That calm must have been purchased by the widespread distribution of largess by the prospective emperor.

The early coinage of Estridsen shows unmistakable Byzantine influence, and can be dated as early as 1044, when he rebelled against Magnus of Norway; his early issues retained the name of Magnus. He was initially backed by Harald Hardrada, who rose to prominence in the Varangian guard, bodyguards for the Byzantine emperor in Constantinople. Tradition recalls that Harald returned home with a vast treasure, which he used to support Estridsen and later to become king of Norway himself.

Jaochim Murat, son of an innkeeper, rose to an exalted position in Napoleons empire, gaining fame as an audacious cavalry officer, becoming a marshal of the empire in 1804 and finally King of Naples in 1808. This medal marks the formation of Neapolitan units to reinforce his campaigns against Sicily, which despite his title remained in Bourbon hands. Murat repeatedly wavered in his allegiance to Napoleon, coming over to the Allies when the emperor's position was threatened. His shifting loyalties did not prevent his overthrow and execution after the battle of Waterloo. After his death his family fled to the United States, where two of his sons married American women, one a niece of George Washington.

The Great Schism, which saw two or more Popes claiming the throne of St. Peter, was prompted by French and Italian factions seeking influence over the church. As the breach widened and involved the other nations of Catholic Europe, the contending popes hurled proclamations of anathema (denunciation of false doctrine) and excommunication (banishment from church sacraments) at each other's supporters, and declaring the other an anti-pope, or a pontiff set against the legitimate line of Peter. Robert de Conti del Genévois (Clement VII) was the first anti-pope of the Schism, opposing Bartolomeo Prigano (Urban VI).

The reverse copies a half scudo of Alexander's father, Ottavio, even down to the date. Alexander rarely visited his Italian estates at Parma and Piacenza, being in the continual service of his uncle Philip II of Spain. He first saw service at the battle of Lepanto in 1571, and after 1577 was on campaign in the rebellious Lowlands. Alexander died in Spanish Flanders in 1592 and only returned to his homeland after death, being buried in Parma.

An Elusive Gold Augustale of Frederick II

Frederick II Hohenstaufen, "Stupor Mundi" - "Wonder of the World", was the most enlightened ruler of the medieval European world, and singlehandedly almost ignited a renaissance a century before it took hold in western Europe. Besides encouraging the study of both the ancient and natural worlds (he wrote an insightful treatise on falconry), Frederick was instrumental in improving relations with the Muslims, negotiating free access to Christian holy sites in the east, where all Crusading armies had come to grief. This despite the fact that he was in frequent conflict with the Catholic church. One of his most concrete innovations was the initiation of a western gold coinage fully comparable in style and quality to the gold of the ancient Caesars. The clearly classical motifs proclaimed his inheritance of the legacy of Rome, and the augustale was issued concurrently with the publication of the Constitution of Melfi, his codification of Norman law meant to follow the famous Roman law codes. The augustale was struck until 1266, and the coinage (and policies) of his successors never again achieved the high standards of Frederick's reign.

The extraordinarily rare gold dinars of Ghazna are the only gold coins struck in the name of Genghis Khan with the mint name and date indicated. The historical importance of these coins was only recognized in the past year, when the first fully legible specimens came to light. They were struck at the last citadel to fall to the Mongols in their conquest of Persia. Jalal al Din, the last Kharizmshah, was driven into India in 1222, and these dinars were probably struck from captured Persian bullion to mark the final victory of the Mongol armies led by their greatest general, Genghis Khan.
